POLICE SEEK PARENTS OF ABANDONED BABY

Infant Found in Alley Doing Well at Hospital.

Precinct Detective T. B. McNamee and his assistant, Joseph Dellamico, of the Ninth precinct, are working in the northeast section of the city in an effort to find the parents of the white infant which was found abandoned in an alley in the rear of 135 H street northeast early yesterday morning.

The child was in a basket wrapped in some old clothes, and was sleeping when found by William Heck, who took it to Tyree's drug store, on the corner of Fifteenth and H streets. From here it was taken to the Foundling Hospital.

At the hospital it was announced last night that despite the exposure to which the child was subjected, it was apparently in good health, and was expected to live. There was no note or other clue for the police to work on. The child was but about two hours old when found. Attendants at the hospital say that it probably was born without medical attention.

CHARLES H. LUPTON MISSING FOR WEEK

Police Search for Manager of Local Tea Company Store.

The police are searching for Charles H. Lupton, 2625 Brentwood road northeast, manager of a local tea store, who has been missing from home since Monday. Lupton, who is 32 years old, has been in ill health for a couple of years and is said to have been growing despondent prior to his disappearance.

On Monday morning he left his home as usual and his wife says she noticed nothing out of the ordinary in his manner. She supposed he was going to work and when he did not return in the evening she became alarmed. She told T. J. Keelty, who lives next door, and he notified the police.

Lupton was for twenty years a traveling salesman and had made his headquarters in Washington for that length of time. A few years ago ill health forced him to give up the road and he had since been manager of a Washington tea store.

The missing man is about five feet seven inches tall and was wearing a dark suit and hat and nose glasses on the day he disappeared.

NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM. WANTED BY CITIZENS

Columbia Heights Association Sends Budget to Commissioners.

Frederick J. Rice, president, and J. Clinton Hatt, secretary, of the Columbia Heights Citizens' Association, representing the executive committee of that association, called on the District Commissioners yesterday and submitted a list of public improvements for Columbia Heights. These recommendations are for the consideration of the District Commissioners, to be placed in their recommendations to Congress for the annual estimates for the District for the fiscal year 1917.

The leading recommendation is for an up-to-date electric lighting system for Fourteenth street from Florida avenue to Shepherd street northwest. Another important recommendation is the purchase of a site for a fire truck house near Sherman avenue and Florida avenue northwest, where there are three hospitals, the new Central High School, the American League Ball Park, and a large number of business houses.

The following recommendations also were made:

For an electric lighting system in Park road from Mount Pleasant street to the west gate of the Soldiers' Home grounds.

For an electric system in Harvard street from Sixteenth street to Georgia avenue northwest, the street fronting the new James Ormond Wilson Normal School.

For an electric system on Florida avenue from Seventh street to Sixteenth street; on Thirteenth street from Florida avenue to Clifton street; on Eleventh street from Florida avenue to Clifton street, and on Clifton street from Eleventh street to Thirteenth street.

For an appropriation for a site for a new sixteen-room graded school building in the locality of Thirteenth street and Spring road.

For an appropriation for the purchase of the present site of the Mount Pleasant playground, or in case that cannot be purchased, then a new site in Columbia Heights.

For an additional appropriation necessary to carry out the completion of the Meridian Hill Park.

FRANK W. METZEROTT NOW ON PENAL BOARD

Governor Harrington, of Maryland, has appointed Frank W. Metzertott, an attorney of this city, whose residence is in Prince George County, Md., one of the three members of the Maryland State penal board.

READY TO CELEBRATE JEWISH NEW YEAR

Festivities Will Begin Wednesday and Continue Two Days.

The celebration of Rosh Hashanah, or the Jewish New Year, will begin Wednesday evening and continue for two days. This is a period of greatest solemnity for those of the faith who pass the time in introspection with a view to atoning for offenses committed during the year. The shofar, or ram's horn, is blown to arouse those whose conscience has become indifferent.

The program of the holiday services of the Washington Hebrew Congregation follows: Wednesday, 8 p. m., sermon, "Unrolling the Scroll"; Thursday, 10 a. m., sermon, "Israel's Solution." Dr. Abram Simon, rabbi of the Washington Hebrew Congregation, will preach.

At the Adath Israel Congregation, Rabbi Benj. L. Grossman will deliver prayer on Wednesday evening and will preach on Thursday morning on "The Triple Forces, Israel's Solution," and on Friday on "The Nation's Call."

HARVARD CLUB PLANS MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

Will Meet November 7 to Plan Year's Activities.

An active campaign to increase the club membership from 235 to 300 will be waged during the coming season by the Harvard Club of this city, according to its secretary, John W. Davidge.

The first meeting of the club will be held on November 7, at the University Club, when plans will be formed and committees appointed to superintend the activities of the year.

At the January meeting officers for the ensuing year will be elected, and the annual dinner of the club will be given during February.

"OBJECT—MATRIMONY" TO OPEN AT BELASCO

Washington first-nighters have a treat in store tomorrow when "Object—Matrimony" will be produced at the Belasco by William M. Brady, for the producer is enthusiastic about the farce.

In a telegram received last night by Manager Taylor, of the Belasco, from Mr. Brady, sent from the latter's summer home at South Long Branch, N. J., the theatrical magnate said:

"Object—Matrimony" matinee just over. It is all I expected and more. Roars of laughter from rise to fall of curtain. Will do a big week in Washington."

The comedy, written by the authors of "Pots and Perlmutter"—Montague Glass and Jules Eckert Goodman—will have its first metropolitan presentation here. The company will arrive today from Long Branch, where it was "tried on the dog" yesterday, and will rehearse at the Belasco tonight.

NO "NEAR BEER" FOR UNLICENSED PLACES

The action taken yesterday by the brewers of Washington and vicinity, together with representatives of other brewing interests, in promising to sell no more "near beer" in unlicensed places in the District brings about a peaceful settlement of what threatened to become a legal issue.

The Excise Board had discovered that a number of unlicensed establishments were placing on a small percentage of alcohol. Under order of the Commissioners, the sale of such drink is prohibited. A test case is now pending in the Police Court.

The board appealed to the brewers, requesting them to discontinue such sales to unlicensed places and the compliance of the brewing interests is expected to settle the problem.

DOVER, KY., MAKES BID FOR U. S. ARMOR PLANT

The claims of Dover, Ky., were placed before the board of selectmen for the proposed government armor plant yesterday by Arthur F. Curran, a delegate from that city.

In its brief the city outlined the advantages to be derived from that location, from which access to all parts of the country is comparatively simple. The richness of the section, together with the list of improvements now in operation or under contemplation, was also made a feature of the plea.

Particular stress is laid on the fact that the location is safely removed from vulnerable sea coast or lake coast invasion.
